

Specialization module “Transboundary nature conservation and sustainable regional development”

DAAD project: Transboundary nature conservation and sustainable regional development for a planned UNESCO biosphere reserve in the Buna Region ,Montenegro/Albania (short: “Together for Buna”)

Content: CMP Open Standards for the Practice of Conservation. Short: Conservation Standards (CS)

Time: 10 days during the second half of September 2023 (exact dates will be announced later on)

Location: Lake Shkodra/Skadar and Bojana/Buna River Region, Albania / Montenegro

Participating universities: University of Tirana (Albania), University of Prishtina (Kosovo), University of Skopje (North Macedonia), University Donja Gorica (Montenegro), Universities of Ioannina and Thessaloniki (both Greece), Eberswalde University for Sustainable Development (Germany)

Module responsible: Prof. Dr. Pierre Ibisch

Lecturers: CS Coaches/CCNet Europe

Available places: 18

ECTS-Credits: 6 (if chosen as a facultative module)

Costs covered: Food, accommodation, travel

Application procedure: Motivation letter, CV

Organisation and contact:
anat.gordon@hnee.de

Specialization module “Transboundary Ecosystem Management and Conflict Prevention”

Format:

- Theoretical lectures
- Assisted group work
- Excursions to case study area
- Interviews with local stakeholders
- Peer reviews

Tools:

- Conservation Measure Partnership (CMP)
- Open Standards for the Practice of Conservation 4.0 (CS)

Topics:

- Transboundary ecosystem management
- Ecosystem-based development
- Strategic conservation planning

Goal: Developing an initial transboundary management plan for the case study area.

Photos: Judith Kloiber

Organisation and contact:
anat.gordon@hnee.de